Christmastide

Fr. Vijay's reflection for Christmastide

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

As we gather on this Sunday within the Christmas season, we celebrate the Holy Family of Nazareth, our model of faith, love, and unity. In a world where families come in many shapes and stories, today's feast reminds us that God dwells in the ordinary rhythms of family life – in patience, forgiveness, shared meals, quiet sacrifices, and the courage to begin again. This celebration invites every household in our parish to rediscover the grace of being a family: a place where we learn tenderness, trust, and the art of loving one another as God loves us. May the Holy Family watch over all our homes, especially those facing hardship, separation, or new beginnings. Jesus, Mary and Joseph: Pray for us.

Sacrament of Reconciliation & Eucharistic Adoration
Saturday 11.15am - 12.15pm
