Fr. Vijay's reflection

In these final days of Christmas, we hear again that the Word became flesh and lived among us. God chooses not distance but nearness – a presence woven into the ordinary rhythms of human life.

The Wisdom of God pitches her tent among the people, and the light of Christ shines where shadows once lay. This is the quiet promise of the season: God is not far off, but at home with us.

As we begin a new year, may we welcome this light into our homes, our work, and our hopes. Christ dwells with us still, offering grace upon grace.
