Christmastide / Ordinary Time Week 1

Fr. Vijay's reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus steps into the waters of the Jordan not because he needs cleansing, but because he chooses to stand with us. His baptism is an act of profound solidarity—God entering fully into the human story. In that moment, the heavens open, the Spirit descends, and the Father's voice proclaims: "This is my Son, the Beloved."

For us, this feast is more than a remembrance. It is a reminder of our own baptismal identity. Each of us has heard, in our own way, that same divine affirmation: we are God's beloved daughters and sons. Baptism is not simply a past event; it is a present calling. It invites us to live as people who carry the light of Christ into the ordinary rhythms of daily life.

The feast gently asks us to rediscover who we are and whose we are. The Spirit who rested upon Jesus rests upon us too - strengthening us for service, compassion, and witness. May we allow that Spirit to renew our hearts, deepen our unity, and guide our parish family in the mission entrusted to us.

The Baptism of The Lord

Heavenly Father, as we reflect on the baptism of Your Son, open our hearts to hear again Your voice calling us beloved. May Your Spirit renew in us the grace of our own baptism, that we may live as servants of Your mercy and witnesses of Your love.
